Sales Mean Jobs Campaign Opened With Huge Rally

Louis B. Round Named To Head Campaign Here To Stimulate Sales

PLAN MASS MEETING IN TAGGART STADIUM

"Sales mean jobs!" That battle cry echoed out of The Castleton ballroom last night when almost 100 New Castle business leaders, club officers and public officials, called together by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, pledged themselves to the job of putting over the National Salesmen's Crusade here. L. B. Round will head the local campaign.

Pledge Real Work

They pledged themselves to work like beavers to turn out a huge community throng at an outdoor mass meeting, in Taggart stadium, late in August.

They pledged themselves to carry to their organizations the story of the astonishing success of crusades in nearly 2,000 cities and towns—and agreed to do their utmost to make the New Castle showing more amazing than that of other campaigns.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce will sponsor the intensive drive with the full co-operation of the Retail Merchants' Association, the South Side Board of Trade, the Seventh Ward Civic Association, the Retail Grocers Association, the New Castle Auto Dealers' Association, Gasoline Dealers' Association, Retail Druggists' Association, Credit Exchange and Insurance Agents' Association.

Others joining will be the New Castle Dairy Association, the East Side Civic club and all of New Castle's theaters.

The heat of an August night failed to check the enthusiasm of the representative audience, and for

M. B. Hogue, of the County Welfare Department, came into the office yesterday with a large package addressed to Welfare Director Edwin O. Reed. He deposited the package on Reed's desk with the remark that it was a present from James Frew, of Slippery Rock township. Reed carefully unwrapped the package and was surprised to find that it contained a big lump of black coal. It seems that Frew has recently opened a new coal mine, or driven a new entry in an old one, and the present was his idea of a joke on Reed.

Nearly everything imaginable is hauled through New Castle on big trucks. Today Pa. News saw a truck load of caskets. They were piled on top of each other, three rows of six caskets each. There were no placards on the caskets, but everybody knew what they were and what they meant. As a rule people do not care much for looking at caskets. They rather look at automobiles in which one can take a ride while living. Fortunately the load of caskets kept on going.

Pa. News saw a bunch of men and women pawing over a pile of sweet corn today in their efforts to pick out the best ears, and wondered what became of the ears that are discarded by everybody. He asked the grocer and was told that the farmer who brings in the corn was going to use a contract in which the grocer took all his crop at a stated price. Each day when he brings in a load the farmer takes back the "leavings" of the previous day and feeds it to his hogs. It's sure tough to be a hog.

'Dollar Day' Crowds To Fill Stores Here All Day On Thursday

"Dollar Day"—the day when 100 cents bring you more than 100 cents in value—will be observed by almost a half-hundred New Castle stores all day Thursday.

Arranged and sponsored by the New Castle Retail Merchants' Association, the banner summer sales event promises to bring downtown one of the largest shopping crowds this city has seen. Heat will mean little to the throngs, for there are bargains galore—and that's putting it mildly.

President Lew J. Miller, of the merchants' organization, commented:

"Thursday's 'Dollar Day' and we're all set. Stores have cut prices and sales staffs are already to go. The day is bound to break sales records for many stores."

Advertisements in The News today are carrying lists of merchandise bargains to be had, but, of course, all the stores have hundreds and hundreds of specials.

"Dollar Day" falls at a time when customers have need for summer merchandise and when they are already turning an eye ahead to the approaching fall and winter.

Mary Allhouse Bitten By Snake

Youngstown Road Girl In Hospital As Result Of Snake Bite Tuesday

Bitten twice in the leg by a snake Tuesday afternoon, on the Youngstown road, Mary Allhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Allhouse, is in the New Castle hospital for treatment. She was unable to identify the kind of snake that bit her, but hospital authorities are treating her with snake bite serum.

The girl was picking berries in a field near her home when a snake suddenly wound itself around her leg. As she screamed, the snake bit her twice, uncoiled itself, and disappeared into the bushes.

Near the Allhouse home there are a number of abandoned coal mines, in which are known to be a number of poisonous snakes. Whether it was a rattler or a copperhead that bit the girl is not yet known.

Grangers Gathering At J. A. Boak Farm

Today is a gala day for grangers of Western Pennsylvania, the occasion marking the 11th annual picnic of the Western Inter-County Picnic Association, and they began assembling at the model farm of State Grange Master J. A. Boak, of Slippery Rock township, this morning to greet the state master, and National Grange Master Louis J. Taber, of Columbus, O., who will be the guest of the Western Pennsylvanians.

For those who arrived this morning the hours were spent informally and an inspection of the Boak farm. At 1:30 this afternoon, the scheduled program was due to start, in charge of Pomona Master W. H. Sharp, Fullerton and Glen Hill, of Armstrong county.

Fred L. Rentz, president of The News company, and a warm friend of the grangers, gave the address of welcome, and was followed by Mr. Taber who spoke to the grangers on problems of national importance confronting the farmer.

This was to be followed at 3 o'clock by a sports program in charge of F. L. Reiter, of Allegheny county, deputy state master; R. H. Bovard, of Allegheny county, and Johnson, Russell, of Washington county.

The visitors here were greeted by State Master Boak, Pomona Master Fullerton, and the deputy master of the state, as they arrived at the Boak farm, and made to feel at home.

Lunch was served at the noon hour by the ladies of Willard Grange, of which State Master Boak is a member, and they were also to have charge of the dinner in the evening.

Music during the afternoon was furnished by the North Beaver high school band, under the direction of W. H. McCullough.

This evening, addresses will be made by Philip H. Dewey, of Tioga county, former state master, and Prof. J. B. Dimit, of Slippery Rock State Teachers college.

There will also be moving pictures shown of Lawrence county farms and industries of the county. It promises to be a big day, and in spite of the threatening weather, there were a large number of grangers here for the occasion.

Carroll On Stand Denies Any Guilt In Maine Murder

Former Deputy Sheriff
Takes Stand To Defend Himself Against Charge

CIGARETTE LIGHTER PART OF EVIDENCE

SOUTH PARIS, Me., Aug. 10.—Barrel-chested Francis M. Carroll, ex-deputy sheriff on trial charged with the brutal murder of Dr. James G. Littlefield, took the stand today as the first witness for the defense.

Carroll was asked by Defense Attorney Clyde R. Chapman, who had the witness on direct examination, if he had purchased a cigarette lighter.

(Sheriff F. F. Francis testified he found a cigarette lighter on the lawn back of the Paul Dwyer home where Dr. Littlefield was slain on the night of October 13 last. The state has tried to prove the lighter belonged to Carroll.) Carroll replied:

"I had a cigarette lighter given to me by Sidney Verrill."

Verrill is a deputy sheriff who used to work with Carroll out of the sheriff's office here.

Changes Testimony.
Carroll changed his testimony a bit to say Verrill bought the lighter "and gave it to me and I paid for it later."

The witness said he used the lighter for some time and usually had it in the desk in the sheriff's office.

"Where is it now?" asked Chapman.

"I don't know," replied Carroll.

Carroll was then asked if he had attended a fair in September of 1937. He had. Had he met Paul Dwyer there? Yes.

"It was in the home of 19-year-old 'Buddy' Dwyer that Dr. Littlefield was slain. Dwyer, arrested three days later at North Arlington, N. J., confessed he killed the doctor and the physician's wife, Lydia, as well. Taken back to Maine and sentenced to life imprisonment.

BRISTOL, N. H., Aug. 10.—Two youthful boys' camp councillors were burned to death today when fire of undetermined origin destroyed the assembly building at Camp Mowgli, on the shore of Newfound lake. A group of 103 small boys, housed in other buildings, were led to safety.

The victims were Robert Blake 17, of Ardmore, Pa., and Richard Hooper, 16, of Manchester, Mass.

Colonel A. F. Ellwell, director of the camp, and Robert W. Iglehart of Indianapolis, Ind., attempted to rescue the two victims, but were driven back by flames. Bodies of the dead pair were recovered later.

In recent years, Soviet consular representation in Manchukuo has been cut down considerably, and only two days ago Soviet officials at Kharuovsk, Siberia, reportedly closed the Japanese consulate "forcibly."

New Deal Chiefs Pleased At Wins In Tuesday Vote

Washington Rejoices At Defeat Of Governor Martin
L. Davey In Ohio

IDAHO RESULT GOOD EITHER WAY

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The New Deal surveyed the four-state primaries today—Ohio, Arkansas, Idaho and Nebraska—and found them fairly satisfactory.

The two senators up for renomination who received presidential pats on the back, Bulkeley in Ohio, and Mrs. Hattie Caraway in Arkansas, apparently won their battles.

Pope May Lose
Senator James P. Pope, in Idaho, an ardent New Dealer, appeared to be having a close race with youngish Rep. D. Worth Clark, who campaigned as an "independent" Democrat. This was not considered especially significant, however, as Mr. Roosevelt did not inject himself into the Idaho picture in any manner whatsoever.

He detoured Idaho on his recent western swing. And besides, Idaho seems to have an inherent addiction for "independents"—as witness the state's returning Senator William E. Borah, a Republican recalcitrant, for more than thirty years. If the final returns show Clark winning there will be no particular disappointment on the part of the New Deal leaders, for his voting record is considered to be "adequate."

There was some quiet rejoicing among the New Dealers over the apparent defeat of Gov. Martin L. Davey in Ohio by National Committeeman Charles Sawyer. Davey has been somewhat of a trial for the New Deal. From time to time, he has conducted feuds with Washington, especially with Harry L. Hopkins, Harold L. Ickes, and the directors of the Social Security board. He once had a warrant issued for Hopkins' arrest should he enter the state. The Democrats figure they have a better chance of carrying the state in November with Sawyer than with Davey.

The administration expects a tight race in Ohio in November, both in the senatorial and gubernatorial contests. Robert A. Taft, son of the former president, apparently won the senatorial nomination and will oppose Bulkeley next fall.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—A WPA worker today filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, listing liabilities of $628,892 and assets of $78,214. He is W. Merle Fisher, son-in-law of John Bain, banker whose chain of banks failed several years ago.

The bankruptcy plea lists secured claims of $170,114 and unsecured claims of $458,778.

Among the liabilities are judgments for $33,314 obtained on notes Fisher signed for friends.

The assets included one dollar in cash, stocks, bonds and real estate. Fisher is the father of three children.

KENT, O., Aug. 10.—Governor Martin L. Davey this afternoon conceded his defeat to Charles Sawyer, Cincinnati, in the Democratic battle for the Ohio gubernatorial nomination.

"I have sent a message of congratulations to Mr. Sawyer," Davey said. "I have no other comment."

(COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 10.—The ever mounting Sawyer plurality in Cuyahoga county today swelled to 17,194 votes the lead of Charles Sawyer over Gov. Martin L. Davey for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Davey apparently was denied a third term by his own party.

With only 274 of the state's 8,601 precincts still unreported unofficial returns gave Sawyer 421,769 votes to 404,875 for Davey.

Of the 274 precincts missing only 52 were outside Cuyahoga county where Sawyer was out-distancing the governor by about 2:4 to one.

Bitter Fight
The fight between Governor Davey and Sawyer was one of the bitterest ever witnessed in Ohio. Davey has been at constant odds with the national administration. He once threatened to arrest Harry L. Hopkins if he set foot in Ohio. He battled with Secretary of the Interior Harold A. Ickes and declared in his campaign speeches that Sawyer if elected would be the tool of John L. Lewis.

For the Democratic nomination to the United States Senate the incumbent, Robert J. Bulkeley made a runaway fight against former Governor George White of Marietta. Bulkeley's majority over White will be about three to one.

Republican Primary
In the Republican primary John W. Bricker, former attorney-general was unopposed for the nomination for governor. In the fight for the senate nomination Robert A. Taft, son of former President William Howard Taft had an easy time winning over Supreme Court Judge Arthur H. Day. His majority will be about 150,000 over Day.

Soviet Indignant At Jap Aggression

Supreme Council Meets On Issue

Russians Ready To Wage Major War To Protect Rights Claimed In Siberia

JAPANESE PROTESTS PROMPTLY REJECTED

By JAMES E. BROWN
International News Service Staff Correspondent
MOSCOW, Aug. 10.—Soviet indignation against Japan rose to new heights today as the hostilities at Changkufeng Hill led to another diplomatic clash between Moscow and Tokyo.

The Japanese embassy here, through its first secretary, lodged a new, stiff protest with the Soviet foreign office against an alleged "unprovoked attack" by Russian forces on Japanese troops at Grodekovo, 90 miles northwest of Vladivostok.

Reject Protest
The Japanese protest was promptly rejected—energetically and without ceremony, just as virtually all other recent Japanese complaints have been tossed aside.

Soviet officials resented the Japanese protest as an attempt to evade Moscow's accusation that Japanese troops had attacked, killed and wounded a number of Russian soldiers at Grodekovo, which lies about 200 miles north of the disputed Changkufeng area.

The Soviet accusation was made by Foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinov on Sunday in an acrimonious interview with Japanese Ambassador Mamoru Shigemitsu. Litvinov then accused of violating the frontier at Grodekovo.

Meanwhile, the Soviet supreme council (parliament) assembled in Moscow today for its second session—perhaps to deal with the most serious foreign crisis the U. S. S. R. has ever faced.

Stalin May Attend
There were reports that Dictator Josef Stalin would attend the first session, but these were not confirmed. If he does attend, it is possible he may address the deputies.

Marshal Vasily Blucher, commander of the Far Eastern Red army, may also send a communication to the parliament from his headquarters on the Siberian-Manchukuoan battlefield.

Authorities here expressed belief that Japan's "extreme militarists" are determined to force the issue with the Soviet Union at once, despite efforts of the Japanese government to bring about peace. As a result, the Soviet government is determined to make every preparation to wipe the Japanese militarists "off the face of the earth" if necessary.

Furthermore, Moscow is determined to stand by its contention that Changkufeng Hill belongs to Russia—even at the price of a major war.

Tokyo, Aug. 10.—Hurting hand grenades amid deafening artillery barrages, Japanese and Soviet troops were locked today in a desperate battle on the Siberian-Manchukuoan "war" front as the red army forces renewed their efforts to take Changkufeng Hill.
The renewed fighting broke out after members of Nippon's supreme war council met for a vital discussion of the border dispute and the military campaign in China.
Latest dispatches from the battle zone claimed the Soviet forces facing Changkufeng, Shaotsaping and other disputed sectors were replaced by fresh troops and that fighting was in progress along the entire four-mile front.

gasoline war. Some of the service station men are content with small signs announcing a price of fifteen cents per gallon, while several have had painted big signs that can be read nearly half a mile away. Several armistices have been called, but after each one the battle breaks out afresh and the pumps keep firing away at the tanks. The service men try to look cheerful through it all and talk about the weather as they give the windshield the customary wipe.

Pa Newc hears a lot of heart-rending tales about the heat. From all accounts most of the sweltering is being done at night. Those who don't use gum sheets are having a hard time keeping the mattress dry. One woman declared today that she has to stand her mattress on end every morning to let it drain out. Another woman says she has been sleeping on the floor to save her mattress. Pa Newc is mighty glad to have a mattress, even if wet, in place of one of those old-fashioned feather beds.

A bunch of men were sitting out at the municipal golf links yesterday talking and smoking. The topic of conversation turned to the ladies. One old bachelor in the party was asked why this was. He replied, "I was once in love with a girl, but she made a fool of me." And another of the party was so uncouth as to remark: "What a lasting impression some girls make."

Pa Newc is informed that mosquitoes are more plentiful this season than in former years. One reason for this is the wet weather. Mosquitoes are always worse when it rains or rains over and over again. They are especially bad around swamps and streams. The mosquito may not have been made in vain, but few of us have ever figured out what is his real mission in life.

Here is one for local fishermen to shoot at. Samuel Haycock, Jr., aged 16, of 318 Boyles avenue, has returned to his home from a fishing trip to Waterford and Lake LeBoeuf, near Erie county, and with him he brought a fish which measured 30 inches over all and tipped the scales at 12 pounds. The young lad, fishing with minnows, landed the fish in the boat, after an hour's struggle.

'Twas O. K. for the bus to go ahead along East Washington street, coming off the bridge near the city building, the light showed green, when a dish-rag dog crossed the street in front of the bus, carrying a pork chop in its mouth. It seemed unconcerned about the dangers of the traffic speeding by. With human headiness and consideration for the little "pooch" the driver jammed on the brakes and pulled up the bus within a few inches of crushing the little animal. The dog never changed its pace, but kept right along toward its destination, as if nothing had happened. Getting some place where he might work in peace on that pork chop was the little fellow's chief concern.

According to Manager Walter S. Hart, there was a flock of wild ducks settled on the small lake at the foot of the hill on No. 1 fairway Monday morning, caused by the downpour during the night. The rainfall was the heaviest during the cloudburst Sunday night that has been experienced at East New Castle this year, it was stated. Old Sol soon dried up the soggy fairway, however, and the course was now in the finest condition it has been in this year. The greens, which had to be kept out long to overcome the ravages of an attack of brown spot, are now being cut close again, and the course is in excellent condition.

Residents who reside along North Mercer street, and who are accustomed to walk to town complain that the weeds are overgrowing the walk, and that the women have to step carefully to keep their dresses from getting soiled, when the grass is wet. They feel that the city should keep the weeds down.

CARROLL ON TSAND DENIES ANY GUILT IN MAINE MURDER

Dwyer recanted his confession and branded Carroll as the slayer of the elderly couple.

"He (Dwyer) had a monkey on a string and some things like that and he asked me if I would take them home and give them to my mother, Janice, and I did," Carroll testified.

On the stand last week Dwyer told of meeting Carroll at the fair. That was after Dwyer had become intimate with Carroll's 17-year-old daughter, Barbara. Dwyer said he warned Carroll not to "do to Betty (Barbara's sister) what he had done to Barbara." Dwyer testified Barbara had told him of an incident, involving her father, which occurred when she was 13 or 14 years of age.

Chapman produced five letters which were read in court last week—Barbara's ardent love letters to young Dwyer in which she said she loved him "with her whole heart, soul and body."

Hounding Him
Dwyer had testified that Carroll was hounding him for Barbara's letters because in them "Babs" had told him things about her father. It was Carroll's determination to get the letters Dwyer stated, that led to the double killing.

Q—(By Chapman)—When did you first learn that Dwyer had these letters?
A—(Carroll)—First I knew of day talking and smoking. The topic of conversation turned to the ladies. One old bachelor in the party was asked why this was.

He replied, "I was once in love with a girl, but she made a fool of me." And another of the party was so uncouth as to remark: "What a lasting impression some girls make."

Charles J. Warner was an easy victor also in the Republican race, according to returns from 980 precincts. The vote was Warner, 31,406; Kenneth Gedney, 8,389; Robert G. Ross, 9,853; Vernon R. Thomas 8,193.

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 10.—United States Senator Hattie W. Caraway had an apparently close lead today in her race for re-nomination as the gubernatorial race.

With 1421 precincts out of the state's 2,002 counted, the vote was Mrs. Caraway, 68,444; Rep. John L. McClellan, 62,712; J. Rosser Venable, 1,479.

The Democratic nomination in Arkansas is practically equivalent to election. Republican candidates will be chosen by party convention in the fall.

Gov. Carl E. Bailey, seeking re-nomination for a second term, was leading his two opponents in the gubernatorial race.

With 1415 precincts out of 2,002 reported, the vote was: Bailey, 68,111; R. A. Cook, 62,432; Dr. R. S. McNutt, 2,464.

Boise, Idaho, Aug. 10.—Senator James P. Pope today conceded defeat in the Idaho Democratic primary.

Senator Pope, the junior senator from Idaho, issued a statement acknowledging the victory of Rep. D. Worth Clark, youthful critic of many New Deal measures.

Pope had been a 100 per cent New Dealer. His defeat was a severe and unexpected blow to New Deal prestige in the northwest.

Many of the rural residents have some fine old antiques which the city folks would be interested in, and it would be a revelation to see how the folks of years ago got along and what type of household utensils and articles of furniture they used.

In addition to the stores listed yesterday, President Sankey states that there will also be a display in the windows of Love and Mogown on North Mill street.

BRASS HATS RUSH TO WELCOME DOUG IN WASHINGTON

400 firemen to patrol eight hours of Corrigan activities starting with a parade down famed Constitution and Pennsylvania avenues and ending tonight with a dinner at the National Press club.

Highspots scheduled for Corrigan's reception included: Luncheon with 1,000 members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians with Robert Brennan, Irish minister, presiding and former secretary of war Patrick Hurley officially presenting Douglas the highest decoration of the U. S. Flag Association, the Cross of Honor.

A visit to the offices of Secretary of State Cordell Hull, whose department, wrapped in tradition and precedent, was unable for 24 hours to officially acknowledge that Corrigan had set a 9000 crate down in Dublin because Douglas had failed to obtain a passport.

To Get License
A call on Secretary of Commerce Daniel Roper and Denis Mulligan, head of the air commerce bureau, who sternly suspended Corrigan's pilot license while he was on a ship enroute home and couldn't have used it anyhow.

A trip to Mt. Vernon and historic Alexandria, both across the Potomac in Virginia.

Meanwhile, Mulligan publicly promised to fix Corrigan up with a new flight certificate for his ancient plane. The bureau chief grounded the jumpy to prevent the incorrigible Corrigan from attempting a flight back to America.

"If Corrigan asks for it—and I expect he will—I'll give him a new license for his crate," Mulligan said. Mulligan is the one government official that Corrigan has expressed a particular desire to meet. It was Mulligan who matched Corrigan's own peculiar brand of Irish whimsy of the day of the famous unauthorized flight by halting it a "great day for the Irish" and announcing he would "spit it" with official reprimands.

But Corrigan must make a deal with Mulligan if they are to kiss and make up officially. He must tear out those gas tanks that obstruct his view and force him to fly sideways to see where he is going.

"If he'll get those things from out in front of his nose, we can talk business," said Mulligan.

two hours the crowd heard speeches explaining the idea back of the sales crusade and outlining New Castle's participation in it.

Presiding was Presley N. Jones, head of the junior chamber. Jones introduced Paul Goodman, Pittsburgh, representing the national headquarters of the campaign; William A. Francis, leader of the auto dealers' group; L. B. Round, Pennsylvania Power company executive, and Lew J. Miller, president of the Retail Merchants' Association, as speakers.

Goodman, a Pittsburgh business leader, outlined the aims of the drive—pointing out that, when all is said and done, "sales do create more jobs and jobs in turn create more sales." He spoke at length of the campaigns in other cities.

Francis told the men, in his highly inspiring message, that "we must analyze and dramatize this crusade—we've got to let everybody who has any connection with selling carry this message to Garcia."

"We're either alive or dead, astir or stagnant," he declared. He told the throng that New Castle wouldn't be satisfied with stagnation.

Pledges Success.
Round added his personal pledge to "put this drive over" and asserted he was for the crusade "because it is a positive thing, not negative." He praised the retail and wholesale businesses of New Castle and challenged any community to match them. He reminded, however, it will take work—hard work.

The audience chose Round for the chairmanship of the crusade not long after his address, and named L. J. Lewis, secretary of the junior chamber, as the campaign secretary. Mayor Charles E. McGrath, arriving late from a business trip to Pittsburgh, bestowed his official blessings on the campaign and offered his personal support to the crusade organization. President Miller of the retail merchants encouraged the audience by citing instances which prove "this sales job can be done." Harry Clark of the South Side merchants' group also sat at the speakers' table.

Banners and pennants, proclaiming the crusade slogan, "Sales Mean Jobs", adorned the ballroom. A date for the campaign will be established by the leaders within a very short time, they said today.

Three committees were announced last night as the key committees for the campaign.

On the executive committee will be C. M. England, Nathan Love, Ivor Davis, M. D. Kohn, J. O. Hutton, W. Davies, J. W. Gaudinger, Thomas I. Elliott, E. C. Wadding, J. P. Renz, Mayor McGrath, Lew J. Miller, Harry Clark, Ray Horchler, Ray Earl, W. A. Francis, Charles Fombelle, Clarence Hough, A. C. Hyde, Ray P. Hall, L. H. Patterson, Jones and Lewis.

On the publicity committee will serve J. F. Renz, chairman; Eugene Scanlon, Ralph Galbreath, Jesse L. Gibson, William Langan, Fred C. Scheppele and A. Bruce Ewing.

The financial committee will be composed of A. L. Birtz, Jr., E. L. Thompson, Harry L. Gormley, William Milson, Norman E. Clark and J. Preston Flaherty.

THOSE HATS

BACK in 1911, when vaudeville was in its prime, a sinuous singer named Olga Petrova used to come out in a gold dress, and in a foreign accent into the following words:

Oh, You Beautiful Doll,
You great big, beautiful doll;
Let me put my arms about you,
I could never live without you—

Doll then seems to have meant sweetheart, and sweethearts without doubt are the new "doll" hats that fashion designers hope will catch on for next Winter. The designation "doll" here signifies a hat to fit a child's puppet, but "doll" also is defined as "a pretty, but empty-headed person, especially a woman."

So long as she be pretty in a "doll" hat, let's not insist on an I. Q. test. And what is this new form of hat, described as no less a bombshell than the Empress Eugenie hats thrown at the world in 1931? Well, it seems to be a round bit of stuff perched at an angle on the forehead, whence it would fall right off were it not for a strap around the back of the head to hold it on.

It's all right with us, but let's hope that this craze for the minuscule doesn't go too far. We have ship models, miniature airplanes, puppet theaters, Lilliputian villages and minikin railroads, all well enough, but when it comes to midgets, we can take them or leave them alone.

SPEED AND DANGER

There is much discussion as to how large a factor in safety is the speed of an automobile. Most drivers admit that the abnormally slow driver may be the cause of as many accidents as can be charged against the speeder.

One big insurance company has launched an advertising campaign in the interests of safety and warns particularly against fast driving at night. It lists numerous causes of accidents and says that they had the common explanation that "people were outdriving their headlights; they couldn't stop within range of their vision."

This is an excellent point to emphasize. The drive fast on a broad, open road when light is good, is one thing; to drive fast through narrow city streets where there are lines of parked cars and where children may be playing, it quite a different thing.

The Automobile Manufacturers Association has decided against advertising the top speed of cars. That will have a good influence. The new cars have a safety element in their capacity for speed: It furnishes them reserve energy for emergencies.

But when one is asked how fast his car will go, one's best answer is, "I don't know. It will go a lot faster than I shall ever drive it."

HIGH COURAGE AGAIN

The perennial buoyancy of the automobile industry is perhaps the most marvelous economic phenomenon in the world. The new models are appearing or are eagerly awaited. The usual optimistic predictions are made for them. That they will be good, everyone knows.

Several million cars "as good as new" are in the hands of pleased owners. What courage is required to retol plants, buy huge quantities of materials and start production of millions more cars!

And yet out of New York comes the report of a stock market expert that already the market is anticipating the stimulating effect of the presentation of new models. "Wall Street," says the report "has been showing renewed interest in the stocks of the motor and accessories companies."

Stocks become interesting to the traders because they promise profits. Millions of cars sold last year, and yet expectation of sales of other millions of cars this year is the more keen.

And many remember how years ago when the total output of automobiles was but a few thousand a year, there was serious worry over the possibility of the automobile industry reaching the "saturation point."

The Human Side Of The News

All the signs point to forthcoming war between Russia and Japan. They have pointed that way, steady as a weathercock in a straight western blow, ever since the little brown soldiers of the Mikado seized Manchuria. Russia, grimly waiting the inevitable, has spent billions of rubles in building up her eastern defenses, thrusting new military railroads into Siberia and Outer Mongolia, creating thousands of fighting planes and laying down dozens of new airfields.

Japan, pursuing an evident long-range policy at any cost, has gone about the difficult business of subjugating China and thus rendering powerless a possible Russian ally on the Japanese left flank. But if she succeeds in reducing China to military helplessness, even if it takes two or three years more, Mongolia and a huge region of Siberia are almost certain to be the next Japanese objective in her vast design of Asiatic imperialism.

It seems impossible that the Bear and the Tiger can dwell in amity upon the great North Asia tableland. One or the other must go. They must fight it out. And the battlefield will be Outer Mongolia, a huge country lying to the east of the Japanese puppet state of Manchukuo.

These, at any rate, are the opinions of a remarkable man expressed in a private letter to an old friend in Chicago. He is a former Chicago bank clerk who deserted the teller's cage to be a tribal chieftain in Mongolia and to realize in the most astonishing fashion his dreams of adventure.

As he cashed checks and reckoned up his books, he visioned himself as the chief of wild tribesmen speeding over the Asiatic plain. That dream lured him from his bank clerk's job and a roof over his head to the limitless plains of Mongolia. Torney Oberg cut himself loose from all that he had known, landed in Mongolia, won, somehow, the friendship of the Mongols, acquired, somehow, a huge tract of land and settled down to raise horses and sheep and grow soy beans.

He lives with his Chinese servants in a Chinese house entirely surrounded with mud walls. It is a lonely life, or would be for most men, but not for Torney Oberg. (Continued On Page Five)

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

WHY CHILDREN ARE DESTRUCTIVE

There has gone abroad a curious doctrine about destructiveness in children, particularly in pre-school children. Ethel Manning, for example, in "Common Sense and the Child," says, "The destructive impulse in the child, whether of its own or of another person's possessions, always has its roots in some psychological conflict; it is never the thing in itself the child seeks to destroy, but some idea associated with it, or something for which that particular article stands—such as adult authority or interference." She would have been nearer the truth, in my opinion, if she had used "sometimes" for "always," and "not always" for "never."

Douglas Thom comments on this matter more wisely, I believe, in "Everyday Problems of the Everyday Child," P. 184, though he seems not to give adequate place to habit; most psychiatrists don't, it seems to me. "Destructiveness may be due to jealousy, anger or perhaps some vague, intangible mental conflict, deep-seated and of long standing; or possibly to some new and rather trivial environmental situation in which the emotional reaction has been excessive."

Look For Annoyances

If you find your child of eight or six, or even four, noticeably destructive, do look for possible annoyances of the child which you may have been a party to. Nevertheless, you can be pretty sure that when under emotional strain this child seems deliberately to destroy his own or other persons' property, he is resorting to some earlier bad habits as an outlet; that somewhere along the line of his training he has failed to acquire desirable regard for property, has lacked training in being careful with it, has failed to acquire wholesome inhibitions. Whereas you need to be very cautious in the handling of the present case, you will know that you have ahead the task of cultivating in this child at moments most favorable emotionally, wholesome attitudes and habits in regard to property.

Those of you who have younger children, just beginning to toddle, may well begin now to exercise great thought and effort in training these young children to handle property with care, and to learn that deliberate destruction is accompanied with immediate satisfaction.

You are also going to strive to prevent unnecessary annoyance to your children. One way to do so is to establish a few essential inhibitions in the child which he learns to accept automatically without any doubt whatsoever; then to lead him into a wide, wide range of activity in which he will be safely free to do as he likes, to find rich enjoyments. But don't fool your self to believe that nearly all destructiveness is due to conflicts. Rather conflicts are the means of setting off bad habits of destructiveness which you have allowed the child earlier to learn. Questions always are welcome. In case you desire a personal reply, enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

EDWIN BOOTH

Edwin Booth was probably the greatest English speaking actor who ever faced a crowded theater. Booth's acting consisted not only in physical motions, but in speech. Those who listen to the mouthings of actors and actresses today and have to strain their ears to catch the words, if they were in Booth's audience, would never have to lose a single word that Booth spoke, so clear was his enunciation.

The most amazing part of Booth's productions was the fact that he never carried any stage scenery from place to place. He carried all the stage properties, swords, spears, shields, jewel boxes, thrones and all that sort of thing, but he never carried any scenery. Often times the stage scenery of the theater in which he was appearing was very limited, and I remember once seeing him in "The Merchant of Venice" with Modjeska, as Portia. In the scene in the play where Portia acts as judge regarding the fulfillment of the bond, demanded a set showing a palatial interior. Not until towards the end of the scene did I realize that the back wall of the room was a forest, so intent was I in watching both Booth and Modjeska. That was the art of Booth and Modjeska. They stimulated the imagination of the audience so much that you could see a castle where there was no castle; a palace where there was no palace.

A great many stories have been written about Edwin Booth, most of which reflect upon the great and unique talents as an actor, but it is quite possible that his finest contribution to the theater was his unremitting efforts to raise it to a more deserving position in the American scene. Both as actor and manager, he was devoted to the highest principles of dramatic art. As a patron of the theater he was discerning and exacting.

A clergyman once wrote to Booth and inquired if he could be admitted by a side or rear door of the theater, and avoid the risk of being seen by his parishioners. The great actor-manager replied: "There is no door in my theater through which God cannot see."

HINTS and DINTS

Sun sets tonight 7:04; sun rises tomorrow 5:07.

Every now and then the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor has to be given some repairs. Liberty in other places in this country also has to be jacked up a bit every now and then on account of the rough stuff pulled by those who think license is liberty.

Every now and then we read of some bird who does not want to leave a fall when he is given the chance. Some coops must be pretty good yet.

JUST THESE THREE

If your nose is close to the grindstone rough, And you hold it down there long enough, In time you'll say there is no such thing. As brooks that babble and birds that sing: These three things will your world compose—Just you, the stone, and your darned old nose.

A man up our way read so much about call money, he tried it, but it didn't pay any attention.

The New Castle Fair is a civic project. Be sure and plan to go this year and see the men and women who produce the stuff you eat—the farmers and their good wives.

LIFE'S LITTLE AGONIES

"Motoring is surely a great thing. I used to be fat and sluggish before the motoring craze, but now I am spry and energetic." "I don't know you motored." "I don't. I dodge."

If it wasn't for day dreams the night watchman wouldn't have anything to do afternoons.

TRY GIVIN' THE RASPBERRY Dear Hints and Dints: Am writing you who look so wise, what your opinion is about a problem which confronts me. I read just yesterday that "if one finds a valuable article, he must try to find the owner, or he may be arrested for stealing." Now, for a long time we used a very delectable kind of preserves, sold by a well-known firm. It did have real berries in it and was very good.

Well, evidently the berries passed out of the picture but the same big bottles, the same color and something of the same taste is for sale. I got a bottle recently and down at the bottom was something resembling a raspberry. Should I return this to the company who makes the stuff, or just keep it and take a chance that it does not break the firm? I should not like to deprive them of their only berry.—Armity Maude

Of course everybody is glad to see their preacher after he comes back from his vacation. Some even don't go when the regular pastor isn't at home.

At twenty you wonder how people can be so awful. At fifty you wonder how, under the circumstances, they can do so well.

The head barber fired an apprentice the other day because, when a customer came in, he never could think of any funny stories.

WORTHWHILE LEARNING I spent years in schools and colleges, packing learning in my mind. I dreamed many a glorious vision that should benefit mankind. I was called a brilliant student; with plans my thoughts were rife, but few have been accepted by the stern inspectors. Life! I built a splendid theory, a beautiful ideal, but when I put it to the test, it did not work out real. And my most useful lessons I did not learn at schools. The facts one gets from teaching are just a set of tools.

Save I can use my learning to strengthen or to bless, it is only excess baggage on which I pay express. I have wasted much I learned at school, of getting and of giving, except I learn to make my facts carry over into living.—Marie Judd.

TODAY'S STORYETTE A tourist agency inserted an advertisement for a guide who was required to escort parties abroad. A hard-up young man, who desired an easy position, applied and was given an interview.

"Good morning," said the agency official. "Parlez-vous Francais?" "I—beg your pardon." "Parlez-vous Francais?" "Ah—highly sorry, but I didn't quite catch."

"Do you speak French?" The young man smiled easily. "Oh, yes," he said, "fluently."

While your dining room should be simply and inconspicuously appointed to render it restful during meals, it should not be monotonous or drab. The background colors should be somewhat subdued. Accents will give sufficient contrast—chair seats light in color, flowers in an attractive container, a bowl of fruit on the sideboard.

Reader's Questions Answered Dear Miss Markel—My son lives in a distant city. He has just written to me that he has been secretly married. The girl's parents have also sent me an engraved announcement of the marriage. I have never met her or her parents. What should I do?

Answer—Ordinarily, it is the duty of the man's family to call upon the bride's family immediately, but no doubt distance prohibits such a course. A Pittsburgh man was sent to jail for from four to 12 months for hitting a lady with a quart whisky bottle. A pint bottle would have been big enough. A quart bottle sounds so big after it is empty.

A FARMER'S LAMENT Over the hill trailed a man behind a mule drawing a plow. Said the man to the mule:

"Bill you are a mule, the son of a jackass, and I am a man made in the image of God. Yet, here we work, hitched up together year in and year out. I often wonder if you work for me or if I work for you. Verily, I think it is a partnership between a mule and a fool, for surely I work as hard as you. Plowing or cultivating we cover the same distance, but you do it on four legs, and I on two. I, therefore, do twice as much work per leg as you do."

"Soon we'll be preparing for a corn crop. When the crop is harvested, I give one-third to the land owner for being so kind as to let me use this small speck of the universe. One-third goes to you, and the balance is mine. You consume all of your portion, while I divide mine among seven children, a hundred hens, two ducks and a banker. If we both need shoes, you get them. Bill, you are getting the best of me, and I ask you, is it fair for a mule, the son of a jackass, to swindle a man, a lordly creature, out of his substance?"

"Why, you only help to plow and cultivate the ground, and I alone must out, shock and husk the corn while you look over the pasture fence and tee-haw at me."

"All fall and most of the winter the whole family, from Granny to the baby work from morning to night to raise money to pay taxes and buy a harness and pay the interest on the mortgage on you. And what do you care about the mortgage? You only cuss, I even have to do the worrying about the mortgage on your tough old hide."

"About the only time I am any better is on election day, for I can vote and you can't. After election I realize that I was fully as great a jackass as your sire. Verily, I am prone to wonder if politics were made for men or jackasses, or to make jackasses out of men."

"And that ain't all, Bill! When you're dead that's supposed to be the end of you. But me? The parson tells me that when I die I go right to hell forever. That is, Bill, if I don't do just as he says. And most of what he says keeps me from getting any kick out of life."

"Tell me, Bill, considering these things, how can you keep a straight face and look so dumb and solemn?" Anonymous.

What's What At A Glance

"Victors" May Be Barred
New Congress May Take Action
Unethical Methods May Unseat Some

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist
WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Membership in congress of several who win the November election may be contested.

An elected candidate can be barred even though there is no doubt that he outvoted all rivals, if it is proved that he got his majority by unethical methods, such as excessive expenditures or the exercise of improper influence in the primaries or in November. Such an exclusion does not seat anyone in place of the excluded aspirant, but it leaves that seat vacant until another election has been held.

In my time in Washington there have been three such exclusions by the senate. There may have been more in the lower chamber but it is impossible to keep track of the house of representatives.

OWN JUDGE The senate is its own judge of its own membership.

It can turn thumbs down on a would-be member if it dislikes nothing except the color of his hair, for example. Of course it is not influenced by any such frivolous consideration. I think that, if it had a good excuse, it might be influenced by his partisan affiliation, sometimes. Theoretically, however, if it bars him it usually is on the ground that his campaign was ridiculously and suspiciously too expensive.

The three senatorial cases I recall were those of Truman Newberry of Michigan, Frank Smith of Illinois and William S. Vare of Pennsylvania.

Newberry, during the progress of his contest, while still a tentative senator, received stacks of abusive letters. He once told me that not until much later did he realize that mail, addressed to Truman Newberry, S. O. B., meant Senate Office Building. Smith was supposed to be Illinois' Insull candidate. The Insull empire had not yet toppled then. Names taken from Pennsylvania cemetery headstones, it was testified, were cast in Vare's behalf, ostensibly as the cognomen of Keystone state electors.

INCIDENTALLY— They are saying now in Washington that Gov. A. B. "Happy" Chandler of Kentucky, who ran against Senator Allen W. Barkley, cannot make out much of a case if he seeks to prove malpractice by opponents in his senatorial campaign on the ground that they poisoned his drinking water.

The argument is this: A Kentuckian! Drinking water! Naturally it was poison to him. Anyway, Gov. Chandler was too badly beaten by Senator Allen W. Barkley, supported by President Roosevelt and a majority leader, to have serious consideration of making a contest.

BOTH SIDES WARNED All the same, Senator Morris Sheppard's committee on investigation of charges of senatorial campaign crookedness warned both sides in Kentucky.

The Texas senator is on a pretty hot spot. He is an exceedingly conscientious old chap and a Democrat. I don't quite know what he would be between Democrats and Republicans. But it is worse than that. He has also to be fair as between Democrats and Democrats—pro-New Deal Democrats and anti-New Deal Democrats.

The senator is a New Dealer, but if he discovered any New Dealer dirty work against anti-New Dealers he is too honest not to say so.

FINDINGS ARE IMPORTANT The Sheppard committee does not decide who shall or shall not sit in the senate at the next congressional session; that is up to the senate itself, subject to election returns and its own subsequent judgment.

Nevertheless the committee's findings are certain to weigh heavily. If it were an issue solely between Republicans and Democrats the answer would be easy. The Democrats will be in a majority. But it is between New Deal Democrats on one side and a combination of anti-New Deal Democrats and Republicans on the other side.

The Republicans are not likely to be caught in anything nefarious; they have the disposition but not the numbers.

The Democrats have the numbers but not the cohesion.

What Noted People Say

(International News Service)
NEW YORK—Dr. Christian P. Reiser, in a sermon praising Flier Douglas Corrigan's stability:

"Publicity goes to weak heads like alcohol, until they become fools. Praise, marvelous attention, exaltation seldom equalled has been given him, but he remained the calm, cheerful, unobtrusive human."

SUFFERN, N. Y.—Cobina Wright, society depression victim: "You know, sometimes when I look at (daughter) Cobina's friends, the girls who went to school with her and still have millions, I'm almost glad we lost our money."

NEW YORK—Wilberforce J. Whiteman, father of the noted orchestra leader:

"I dislike swing—I think it's a lot of noise; but I do like Paul's arrangement of 'Tiger Rag.'"

PASADENA, Calif.—Shirley Temple, child actress, returning from a trip through the East:

"I started to keep a diary but gave up because it got too long."

Hot weather statistics: The skin of fat persons is actually a trifle cooler than that of the thin ones, if that's any consolation these hot summer days. Major league baseball crowd will buy more hot dogs, soda pop, etc., between the games of a doubleheader if the home team has won the first contest. It often makes as much as $200 in the receipts. A Cleveland, O., woman sued the owners of a building there for damages because, she charged, "parts of her underwear fell off" as she passed toward the doorway in her embarrassment, she fell into a coal chute. The judge sympathized with her plight, but threw the case out of court.

Simple as newspaper English is supposed to be a University of Chicago professor reports after researching, that, taking the size of the words in syllables as a measurement, the average percentage of difficult words in books is 27, in magazines 31 and newspapers 35. O smash success has been cellophane in the U. S. Light in weight as it is, more than 1000 tons of it are sold in the U. S. each month. Today's favorite gag: PROFESSOR: "The examination questions are now in the hands of the printer. Are there any last-minute questions you'd like answered?" STUDENT: "Who's the printer, professor?"

Our private European spy reports the inside diplomatic dope is that Mussolini asked England to "force" him out of Spain because Il Duce and his close followers began to suspect that Hitler was purging the Spanish conquest, possibly preparing the Spanish conflict to keep Italy busy on the Mediterranean. We Americans may not have so much money as in boom days, but since 1929 the average length of life in the U. S. has increased by nearly five years—4.93 years to be exact. And that reminds us: At the height of the oil boom, Howard Hughes was reputed to have an income of $80,000 a week. It came chiefly from a steel garage, invaluable in drilling wells which his late father patented and leased only on a royalty basis.

Man-eating people of the western world have an unpleasantly queer smell to Orientals, but of course they never say anything about it to our faces. An investigation of loan sharks in Kansas City showed that one workman who had borrowed $25 paid a total of $18 in interest alone in the next 20 months. Midsummer bon mot: "When it comes to sunlight, over-exposure will kill a photograph—and it isn't too good for people either." On the word of an expert in the game, you can start one of those pulp magazines for as little as $5,000; the second issue always dives below the first issue in sales; and if the third issue doesn't show a quick upturn, the periodical is doomed. Explanation: The Great Salt Lake has such a high saline content, it loses water only through evaporation, while the mineral content remains behind.

To the Romans of the early Christian era, pepper was actually worth its weight in gold. Experience at Cornell Medical School showed that after two long years, canned mother's milk has lost none of its goodness. Distinction: Gene Tunney is the only professional boxer who ever wrote for the Encyclopedia Britannica. He did an article on American boxing for that authoritative work. Boston has a Ritz-Carlton hotel and also a Fritz-Carlton, less than a mile apart. A well made electric shaver should have a useful life of at least five years. George Washington's beaver Mount Vernon was neutral territory during the War Between the States by agreement on both sides. No armed soldiers ever trod the grounds of the estate.

Mountain trout will often die in water that's no warmer than 75 to 80 degrees. U. S. Senator Rush Holt speaking: "By differences of opinion this country has profited. We got different viewpoints because the Senators could express themselves without thinking that the speech would mean the loss of a project, a federal grant, or some other favor to the state." It's estimated that by 1940, the employers in the U. S. steel industry will be putting up at least $90,000,000 a year for social security alone. Transmittal: Atlantic City, N. J., now has four night clubs in buildings formerly occupied by banks and banking institutions.

DECISION This was the way it seemed to me: The thing I did was what I should. Some call it wrong; I thought it good.

No matter what the cost may be, I weighed that rather carefully. The price of it I understood. And chose to pay it, since I could. In that way staying conscience free.

A fool! Well, so 'twould seem today. A silly blunder at its best. At least that's what the critics say. Who have a loss and profit test. Which proves it's difficult to do. A deed that's right and clever, too

Large Crowd At Ward Park For W.P.A. Concert

Varied Program Of Classical And Popular Music Is Presented In Ward

A large crowd of Seventh Ward residents turned out Tuesday night for another in the series of summer band concerts, scheduled for the Liberty street park, corner of Darlington avenue and Liberty street. The concert was presented by the excellent WPA orchestra under the able direction of Ben Shulansky.

In order to please everyone a mixed program including semi-classical and popular music was presented. Under the baton of Harry Hammond, co-director of the group, the popular music was forthright.

New Lights Needed

At the present time, most of the streets in the Seventh Ward are lighted by a temporary, over head, wiring system. Sometime ago trouble developed in the street lighting system, and workmen discovered that a large portion of the underground wiring had been burned out.

Discussion regarding new lighting post was also heard. An effort will be made to secure a new type of post, similar to those in use on North Jefferson street, in the up-town district.

After making an inspection of the rural routes serviced by the Mahoningtown Post Office, rural carriers, and Superintendent Edwin McBride, state that the general appearance of the boxes in the district has been greatly enhanced during the past 10 days.

Last week was observed nationally as Rural Mail Box Clean-Up Week. During this time, many rural mail patrons took a little pride in their property by fixing up their boxes.

Superintendent McBride states, however, that a few boxes still remain in bad condition and are in need of repair. The owners of these boxes, stated McBride, evidently do not care what their property looks like or what the passing motorist thinks of it.

The Human Side Of
The News
By EDWIN C. HILL

The nearest city is Peiping, 350 miles distant, and almost five centuries away in time. The nearest neighbor is whatever Mongol tribesman happens to pitch his skin yurt, or tent, on the open Mongolian plain.

A dead shot with rifle or pistol, the one-time Chicago bank clerk can hold his own with any man, and often has to stand off bandit attacks. Were it not for the fact that he is a foreigner, a "White Devil," he would own a great farm of his own, but he loves the life well enough to remain in Mongolia, to manage the farms of others.

The son of Swedish missionary parents, Oberg used to work for the late Ivar Krueger's Swedish Match Company. Tiring of that he came to America and got a job in a Chicago bank, and then he found his strange niche in life. He is an authority on Chinese and Mongolian affairs, and has vast influence throughout a region almost as large as the United States.

He speaks many dialects perfectly and takes delight, sitting on his haunches within a smoke-filled yurt, in spinning yarns with the camel-caravan men, the horse-traders and the sheep-drover who pass his way from Turkestan, Sinkiang or Outer Mongolia.

Everywhere in the ancient land, still living in an era older than the Old Testament, Torngrey Oberg is known as a man to be respected, trusted and feared. He sees dark clouds over Mongolia. His ears catch the thunder of distant cannon. War, he thinks, is on the march westward.

Storm Misses Girl Scout Camp

Mosquitoes Prove Worst At Mercor County Camp

Mothers of local Girl Scouts, who are encamped at Camp Kiondasha, at Transfer, Pa., the Mercor county Girl Scout camp, will be reassured to learn that the terrific storm which swept the local district early Monday morning, missed the spot where the girls are encamped. It rained some, but there was no heavy electric discharge accompanying the rain there.

The worst thing the girls have to contend with is the mosquitoes, and hurry up calls have been sent to the folks back home to send the girls citronella to keep the mosquitoes away. Some of the girls were wise enough to take a bottle of the oil with them, and they are practically free of the bites of the pests, but those who do not have it are having a scratching good time.

Next Sunday will be visitors day, and a great many local people are expected to journey to the camp to visit the girls.

Holding Navy For Observation

Returning to the city, they saw Navy walking near Scotland Lane on the New Castle-Youngstown highway and took him into custody.

State Investigation Now Becomes Political Football

Probe Suspension Makes Issue Of It

Grand Jury And Legislative Inquiry Stopped Pending Supreme Court Action

COURT WILL MEET IN LATE SEPTEMBER

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Aug. 10.—Pennsylvania's three-month-old legislative-judicial dispute today was thrown squarely into the lap of the fall election campaign, destined apparently to become one of the major issues.

Court In September
Indications were the state supreme court would not rule upon the constitutional issues involved until late September or early October. By that time Pennsylvania's "crucial" fall election campaign would be in full blast.

The state supreme court does not meet in regular session until September 26 and Justice Kephart said he held little hope of getting the justices to meet in special session before then.

In the meantime both the Dauphin county grand jury investigation of the state government and the legislative investigation were apparently suspended.

Justice Kephart's stay, granted yesterday, effectively stopped the grand jury probe until a final ruling could be made by the high court. The legislative investigation was halted when Justice Kephart refused to lift county Judge Paul N. Schaeffer's orders impounding the grand jury evidence and stopping District Attorney Carl B. Shelley and grand jury witnesses from testifying before the legislative committee. Consequently, the house committee members decided, it would be useless to continue their investigation at present.

Campaign Due
The political campaign is due to get underway immediately after Labor Day, with both Democrats and Republicans scheduled to open their verbal barrages against each other then. And it seemed certain the question of legislature versus courts would be one of the major issues of the campaign.

With both the grand jury and legislative investigations seemingly stopped until late September or early October the special session of the legislature apparently was prepared to wind up its proceedings within the next week or two for recess until after Labor Day. Democratic legislative leaders said the legislature would probably recess next week or the week after until "just before or just after" the state supreme court met. That might indicate a six weeks' recess.

The legislature completed its third week last night and then recessed until Monday night. To date it has enacted into law the four probe bills designed to halt the grand jury investigation, a bill recreating a commission to investigate the oil industry, a few other measures. The Thompson bill calling for a $75,000,000 school construction program with federal aid was held over for passage next week.

Radical Changes
The constitutionality of three of the four probe bills rushed through the legislature during its first week's session are now in dispute and before the supreme court. They involve radical changes in grand jury procedure and seek to establish the priority of the legislature over the courts in investigating the acts of public officials.

It is these three measures, plus the administration's and the legislature's attacks upon the state judiciary which will become prime issues in the coming campaign, political observers here believed.

Believe Huge Oil
Field Lies Under Florida Swamps

(International News Service)
MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 10.—Following ten years of surveys, both in field and laboratory, test wells now will be drilled in an effort to prove the theory that a vast pool of oil lies beneath the Everglades of South Florida. Thousands of dollars have been spent by a leading oil company in making a geophysical survey of more than 1,000,000 acres of glacial land, preparatory to actual drilling.

Geologists long have contended that the Appalachian uplift extends into South Florida and connects with the uplifts in Texas and Louisiana. They believe that oil reservoirs lie at the tops of the peaks under the swamp lands.

According to Dr. Baird T. Spalding who helped develop the Pennsylvania oil field, the limestone here is porous enough to be a great reservoir for oil. It is of the same formation as that found in the Tampico, Mexico, oil field.

The geophysical survey of the oil company was made with a "swamp buggy," a specially-built vehicle that is capable of traveling over water as well as land. It carries delicate instruments that detect breaks in the underground strata and point to logical spots for drilling operations.

Oil first was sold commercially as a medicine.

'Communism' Is
Tabernacle Topic

Rev. Marmion Lowe's prophetic sermons at the Calvary Gospel Tabernacle had been of great interest to the nightly audiences. Last night's discourse on "The Rise of the Roman Empire" was heard by visitors from Youngstown, Sharon, McDonald, Greenville, Harlansburg and Grove City, as well as the local people. Several musical numbers were given by the girls' trio from the McDonald, O., Baptist church. Tonight Rev. Lowe will speak on "The Rise and Ruin of Communism".

Rev. Lowe, according to Pastor R. J. Fredericks, is a preacher and teacher of exceptional ability and has a long record of successful years both as a pastor and teacher in the Davis Memorial Bible Institute. This is a request return engagement to the Calvary Tabernacle.

Boys Complete Dangerous Trip Down Allegheny

Two Smethport, Pa., Boys Complete Water Trip Of 240 Miles Today

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Aug. 10.—Once is enough, Bernard Huffman, 16, and William Paul, 17, both of Smethport, declared today following the successful conclusion of their 240-mile trip down the Allegheny river in kayaks from Corydon.

Next time they're going to pick more substantial crafts, they explained, and some that don't require so much muscle-effort.

It took them just two weeks to make the trip, they said. They explained that it took them so long because of the excellent fishing, and the fact that they got hungry so often they lost time by stopping at river towns for food.

Ripped By Rocks

Only once, they said, did they encounter any trouble, that time Bernard's kayak was ripped open by a rock. The boys, both Smethport high school seniors, said they made about 10 miles a day, traveling 12 to 13 hours at a time.

Advertising Makes Work

NUMBER 9.

Once upon a time, a certain hotel chef was out of a job. In an effort to earn a few dollars, he made a batch of his own special salad dressing which hotel patrons had always liked, put it up in bottles, and went from door to door selling it to housewives. It was a superior dressing, but housewives had never heard of it.

The chef found it slow work and had a hard time selling enough salad dressing to make a living. So he put a little ad in the paper, announcing that his tasty dressing which had pleased the palates of discriminating hotel diners could now be purchased in bottles at his home. Many came and bought. So he advertised more, and soon he was very busy putting up the dressing and waiting on customers, and he had no time to sell from door to door.

That was the beginning of a big business. The former hotel chef eventually became a national advertiser, using many forms of advertising, and operated a large plant with scores of workers. His salad dressing was sold over the counters of stores in all parts of the country. He maintained the quality of his product, and thousands of housewives insisted on having his brand of dressing.

This story illustrates how advertising has built many, many individual enterprises. In this case, the hotel chef not only made profitable employment for himself, but his advertising resulted in making work for a large number of wage earners and salesmen. The same thing has happened in nearly every line of business. And it is going on today, in numerous little businesses and big businesses.

Electric clocks were put on the market about in 1928, and in that year comparatively few were sold. The big depression came on, but in spite of it, large advertising campaigns were launched, and sales mounted steadily. In 1937, about 2,000,000 electric clocks were sold, and now nearly half of all the homes supplied with electricity own one or more electric clocks. Jobs have been made for hundreds of workers. It could not have been done without advertising.

The radio industry was almost nothing fifteen years ago. Now it gives employment to thousands of wage-earners, and 25,000,000 homes are equipped with radio sets. This miraculous growth was accomplished through advertising. The huge automobile industry presents a brilliant advertising achievement. Automobile manufacturers credit the use of advertising with the swift climb to tremendous sales. Engineering excellence alone could never have sold so many cars.

In many other fields we see companies and whole industries which have grown large by the help of good advertising and so have made many more jobs for workers. But it must not be assumed that advertising can make every business succeed. Not at all. The product must be good or consumers will turn thumbs down and the company goes out of business.

When advertising brings a good product into the limelight, consumers buy, factory wheels turn faster, and men get jobs. Advertising makes work.

Judge Braham To Be Commencement Speaker For Class

Geneva College Commencement Will Be Held Thursday Morning, August 11

The annual August commencement at Geneva College this year is scheduled for Thursday of this week at 10 a. m., D. S. T. It is to be held in the college auditorium with Judge W. Three are receiving associate certificates.

With the addition of those who graduated and received associate certificates in the June division, the total for the year 1938 is 116, 102 of whom are full-fledged graduates and the remaining 14 those who have taken a two-year course and secured certificates entitling them to teach.

'Dips' To Play Eight-A-Day At Coast Fair

(International News Service) SAN FRANCISCO—A living 'mug' exhibit, which will likely be known as the "Exposition Show-up," is to be featured at the 1938 Golden Gate International Exposition. This idea was fostered by Chief of Police William J. Quinn to discourage crooks from playing their trade in this vicinity during the west's world fair. "Crooks apprehended while preying on exposition visitors," explained Chief Quinn, "will be brought to Treasure Island for a personal appearance if nabbed in any of the surrounding counties. Those picked up on the exposition site will be given featured spots in the show-up. These lawbreakers will play eight 'shows' a day, and the public will be urged to attend every 'performance.' We think that such a real-life rogues' gallery will prove most effective in discouraging an influx of criminals."

Isabelle Harlan to Earl D. Harlan, second ward, $1.

Louis R. Wilder to Clarence Spencer Sr., first ward, $1.

The 250 applicants for naturalization who are now undergoing a preliminary examination at the court house, each pay $5 into the prothonotary's office. One half of this money goes to the state and the other half is retained by the county.

Letters testamentary in the estate of the late John Wardman of Ellwood City, have been granted by Register and Recorder, Orville Potter, to Grace M. Wardman. Letters of administration in the estate of the late Hazel Thompson of this city, have been granted to E. Meade Thompson.

An application for divorce has been filed at the prothonotary's office by Margaret Elizabeth Wehr, of 1116 East Washington street, against Austin A. Wehr, of Baden, Beaver county. They were married in August, 1929. The application is made on the grounds of cruel and barbarous treatment.

County commissioners were at Hillsville again yesterday in connection with getting settlements with the owners of houses which must be moved off the right of way of the new road. They have now exhausted their efforts, and those who have not signed agreements as to the amount of damages they will accept, will have to fight the matter out in the courts.

Thomas Edmunds, chief clerk in the Permanent Registration Bureau, has left on a vacation to be spent in Canada. He took a lot of fishing tackle and will rely on the natives for bait.

County Treasurer V. I. Mandich reports that there are still a considerable number of merchants and others who have not paid their mercantile tax. The time limit for paying at face is past, and five per cent is now added. Taxes not paid before October will be placed in the hands of collectors, and there will be additional costs.

An alias subpoena in divorce has been issued in the case of Gertrude Rudolph against Leonard Rudolph. According to a return by the sheriff, Rudolph was "not found" following the issuance of the original subpoena. The alias is returnable on the first Monday of September.

The Home Owners Loan Corporation has filed a writ to get possession of a property occupied by Alfonso and Nicolette Jannett on Morton street. The property was sold at sheriff sale on June 6th, but the occupants have refused to vacate. The court directed a citation to issue, returnable within fifteen days.

An application for divorce has been filed at the prothonotary's office by Carrie E. Shaffer, 104 North Crawford avenue against Jess R. Shaffer, who is supposed to be located in Chicago. The couple were married in 1934, and desertion is alleged.

An affidavit of defense has been filed at the prothonotary's office in a suit of Harry Coleman against Tom Alonsky, in which plaintiff sought to recover for a bill of merchandise. Defendant says the merchandise consisted of shirts and that

Quick Relief From Pile Irritation

Albert G. Dottle has issued a summons in trespass against Clarence C. Titus, in which the papers are to be served on defendant in Mercer county. Statement of claim will be filed later.

Old Time Lugger To Be Dismantled

(International News Service) FALL RIVER, Mass.—The blow torch and the wrecker's hammer soon will reduce to scrap the Tusitalia, 55-year-old full-rigged ship which the U. S. Maritime Commission rejected recently for use as a training vessel for the American merchant marine.

The Tusitalia for six years served as a landmark at a Hudson river anchorage where her masts towered above New York's Riverside drive. A monument to the era when sail was king, she was towed to the Fall River yards of the Marine Liquidating company for dismantling.

Art Department At High School Working On Project

HARRISBURG, Aug. 10.—Dr. Lester K. Ade, Superintendent of Public Instruction, believes that all Pennsylvania cities should have official seals and flags.

He has suggested that the art departments of the public schools should undertake, as a creative educational project, the designing of seals and flags for possible adoption by city authorities in those cities which now do not have official seals or flags.

The art department of the New Castle high school, has recently been giving considerable attention to an appropriate seal and flag for the city of New Castle.

Vienna Medical Institute To Be Moved To London

(International News Service)
LONDON.—The Pearson Institute, one of the most famous medical research institutions in the world, which was founded in Vienna by Frederick Pearson, American millionaire and former diplomat, is to be transferred to London.

Permission for the entire staff of the institution, who are Jewish, to come to Britain has been granted by the British Home Office.

The staff, which consists of thirty doctors, nurses, and laboratory assistants, will bring with them equipment valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars.

To Move Shortly

They will take up quarters at the West London hospital in a few weeks time.

Two of the chief scientists, it is understood, have been given permission to remain in Britain permanently. They are Professor Ernest Freund, who is 72 years of age and his woman assistant, Dr. Gisela Klammar.

Mrs. Pearson, wife of the founder of the institute, said today: "It is impossible now to carry on in Vienna."

Play Safe—Be Sure—Use Polident

Most people who wear plates or bridges suffer from a special kind of bad breath. Dentists call it "denture breath."

You don't know if you have it—but it can spoil your happiness. Friends will shudder—people avoid you! And the worst of it is that ordinary brushing cannot prevent it. Neither will mouth washes. For the odor comes from a mucin-scum that collects on plates and bridges. This scum soaks up germs and decay bacteria and causes a vile odor that you cannot detect.

Flyer Forced To Land At Chewton

Roy Confer Not Injured In Mishap—Plane Repaired At Local Airport

When he developed engine trouble while flying over Chewton, Tuesday morning, Roy Confer, of Titusville, Pa., was forced to land in a field just south of Chewton. The pilot was not injured in the landing.

In bringing the ship to earth in the emergency landing, Confer damaged his airplane to a great extent and was unable to again leave the ground.

Confer contacted Findley Wilson, local aviator and instructor, and he went to Chewton and made temporary repairs to the crashed plane. Wilson is licensed by the government to work on airplane motors and equipment.

Confer and Wilson returned the plane to the New Castle airport and the damage was then carefully repaired. The visiting pilot left Tuesday evening for his home port.

Oppose Removal Of Parking Meters

Croton Avenue Businessmen,
Residents Want System
Continued

Much has been said for and against parking meters but the fact remains that, when the city traffic commissioner, Thomas Jones, today started to remove meters from North Croton avenue, his action met with a storm of verbal disapproval. Jones departed hurriedly, informed Mayor Charles E. McGrath of the situation and the latter decided to continue meters in that avenue for the present.

According to Commissioner Jones report to the mayor, not only business house proprietors but residents of Croton avenue, expressed their disapproval. One man said the removal of the meters in that avenue would be a big mistake while a businessman said removal would create a traffic hazard.

The meters are located between East Washington street and the North street bridge.

News Briefs From City Hall

Police cruiser cars are operated usually between 7 p. m. one day and 8 a. m. the next but more recently the cars were placed in operation during certain periods of the day time because of the vacation time for police. By operating the cars during certain daylight hours the entire city can be patrolled.

City police are providing inspection service at many homes throughout the city. Immediately upon receipt of information that residents have gone on a vacation the officers, in cruiser cars, each night, pay a visit to the residence to guard against possible burglary.

Raymond Fehrenbaug, 424 Neshannock avenue, reported to city police yesterday that someone ransacked his room and stole a $15 ring.

Police in a cruiser car were dispatched to San Park last night on claim that "petters" were in cars. The police reported no "petters" were found.

Assemblyman Is Unhappy About The Whole Thing

J. D. Jirolanio Wants To Know Why The Committee Isn't Investigating

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Aug. 10.—Outspoken demands for continuation of the house investigation, of graft charges against the Earle administration, and criticism of the committee's plans to mark time in their inquiry pending a supreme court ruling, were voiced in the house on Tuesday afternoon.

"The house committee should continue its investigation," declared Rep. Justin D. Jirolanio, D. Northampton. "No member of the committee had the right to say that no witnesses would be called."

His statement was an inferential rap at Chairman Herbert E. Cohen of the house probe committee, who promised Chief Justice John W. Kephard of the state supreme court the committee would not call witnesses under court order not to testify on the allegations.

"An emergency exists in Pennsylvania," Jirolanio said. "The supreme court should end its recess and hold a special session immediately. The investigation should continue so the people of Pennsylvania will know whether the charges are true or false."

Rep. Ellwood J. Turner, Delaware, Republican member of the committee, asked Jirolanio if he thought the court recess was an "improper delay." The Northampton Democrat said he thought it was.

Rep. Samuel A. Blum, D. Philadelphia, reiterated Jirolanio's argument in another brief statement.

JEAN FROCKS

112 E. Washington St.

Rambling Around World Of Sports

Rambling Along the Avenue . . . Gloom pervaded the avenue, the same kind of gloom that will fill the atmosphere from now until the close of the grid season. . . . We shook hands with A. G. Capezutti, who guides the athletic destinies of Bessemer high school. . . . Capezutti is moaning out loud and you can't blame the former Slippery Rock college flash. . . . For one thing, Bessemer lost 13 pigskin carriers through graduation, enough to make any coach moan. . . . And the schedule is tough. . . . Bessemer plays nine games, including an engagement with Edwood City high, November 19. . . . A few paces down the walk, we tossed views with Frank Nocera, coach of Shenango Township high school. . . . His story was identical to the one we heard a few moments before. . . . Nocera and Capezutti attended Slippery Rock, that explains that. . . . We mused a bit farther in the hope of meeting Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh, New Castle grid wizard, and some of the other professors of the game. . . . Being somewhat in the mood to listen to those well prepared "moan" stories, we were rather disappointed when we were unable to find more coaches.

Plenty of action . . . Throughout the district, New Castle is gradually gaining a reputation for being a city where you really get your share of thrills when you attend a boxing show. . . . Without a doubt, fans are getting more than their share of thrills and entertainment at the Grove Street playground. . . . The Jeff A. C. weekly amateur shows are "pips" all the way through. . . . Thomas Leach deserves an orchid for his adeptness in promoting action filled cards. . . . Monday's presentation sulted the most fastidious fight enthusiast.

The toughest park . . . In the senior loop, the National league park, home of the Stinging Bees, is regarded as the toughest for batters. . . . Players throughout the circuit claim the background is poor. . . . Winds blowing in from the outfield don't help a batter any. . . . It is also claimed that the infield is slow, and has the thickest mat of grass in the big leagues. . . . A story that circles the majors says that the grass is purposely kept high so that Boston hurlers throw more low curves, forcing batters to hit into the dirt.

Do you know? . . . Vito Tamulis of the Brooklyn pitching staff, is referred to as Vitamin V or Tomatoes by fans. . . . Joe DiMaggio, of the Yankees, hit home runs with the bases full on three different occasions in 1937. . . . The average salary of a major league hockey player is about $4,000. . . . Persia is known as the "cradle" of polo. . . . Brooklyn hasn't won a pennant since 1920. . . . Commissioner Kenesaw Landis was the highest paid individual in baseball in 1936. . . . His salary was $65,000. . . . The Cincinnati Red Stockings was the first salaried team in baseball. . . . Johnny Vander Meer's nationality is listed as Dutch-American. . . . The record for runs scored in a single inning was made by the Forest City team of Cleveland. . . . In 1870, in a game played at Utica, New York, Forest City scored 90 runs in one inning.

Vanily at its funniest: A loafer feeling offended because a worker won't quit to entertain him.

SAXONS DEFEAT ALL-STARS

The Eintracht Saxons defeated the Super All-Stars last night at Dean Park field, 19 to 5. Errors on the part of the Supers proved costly. Snyder tossed for the Saxons and Lutz for the Supers. This is the first of a three-game series.

DECAPRIOS WIN GAME

The Decaprios won from the Castlewood team 24 to 5 at the Castlewood team. It was the Decaprios 36th victory of the year. Today the Decaprios are tied with the Nomads for first place in the midget league, according to Tommy Morella.

FANNINS TOP OAK A. C.

The Fannins won from the Oak A. C. last night at the Rose Avenue field by the count of 9 to 8. William "Goat" Johns started for the Fannins and was relieved by The coplins in the fourth inning. The heavy hitters were Marcello and Christopher. Farris, for the Oak A. C., featured with a homer. The game was halted at the end of the sixth by darkness.

Young Republicans Name Their Officers

GROVE CITY, Aug. 10.—J. Ed Nordstrom was elected president of the Grove City Young Republican club at an enthusiastic organization meeting attended by 35 young men and women. The club now has a membership of 75, with a drive coming as the first step in its activities.

Other officers selected were: vice president, Edward Thomas; secretary, S. T. Niece; and treasurer, Joe Allen. Prof. R. G. Walters, as the chief speaker, gave a critical review of the conduct of the nation's affairs in the past nine years, and challenged the young members of the party to enter strenuously into the campaign prefacing the November election.

PROMINENT CITIZEN DEAD

SLIPPERY ROCK, Aug. 10.—C. A. Bowers, 62, one of Slippery Rocks' most popular citizens, died at his home here yesterday, after a lingering illness. He had been a druggist here for 31 years; served on the borough council for 15 years, and was treasurer of the I. O. O. F. Lodge. He taught a Sunday School class in the Presbyterian church for years until his health failed. Funeral services will be held from the church Wednesday at 2.

Meeting Of City Baseball Managers Called For Friday Night

Father Peter Michael Schirra of St. Joseph's church, president of the City Baseball league today asked that the members of the various teams get their games started at 5:30 o'clock if possible or by 5:45 o'clock at the latest so that the teams can play seven innings. The games recently have had to be called at the end of the fifth and sixth innings by darkness. There will be a meeting of the league managers Friday night at the St. Joseph's Parish at 8 o'clock.

Banquet Plans Are Progressing

President Crisci Of City Softball League Sponsors Banquet At Cathedral

Plans for the big City Softball league banquet to be held on the night of September 7th at the Cathedral dining room, are progressing nicely, according to Franklyn R. Crisci, president of the City Softball league and tourney commissioner.

At the present time there are over 300 tickets out for the affair. Mayor McGrath will be asked to attend and be a speaker; so will the four councilmen, Alexander, Fink, Rice and Dunlap. The banquet is for the seniors, juniors and midgets. The beautiful Perelman trophy cups will be awarded at the banquet by President Crisci.

The banquet should be the finest of its kind ever held here. (International News Service) NEW LONDON, N. H., Aug. 10.—Modern inventions notwithstanding, 31 yoke of oxen regularly are being employed in general farm tasks in the New London section.

Tells Camden Folks That Lie
Detector Machine Is All
Wet, Given Reception

(International News Service)
CAMDEN, N. J., Aug. 10.—Douglas (Wrong Way) Corisan left behind him in Camden today the distinct impression that—as far as he's concerned—lie-detector machines are fabricators.

"Why that darn machine disproved itself," grinned the smiling little trans-Atlantic flier as he talked about a Boston lie-detector test during a brief stop at Central Airport here on his way to Baltimore.

The machine registered a slight rise in Doug's blood pressure when, during his Boston visit, he insisted he thought he was flying to California on his sole flight to Ireland in a $900 patch-work plane.

"They asked me two different questions about whether I really thought I was flying to California and they conflicted—and the ma-

The board of directors of New Castle's Kiwanis club today had endorsed the movement to construct five new community bathing pools in the city, President Orville Potter, reported.

Almost $5,000, enough to pay jobless benefits at average rates to 50 Pennsylvania workers, is piling up

The exact figure is $4,593.37, representing interest accruing daily on contributions by Pennsylvania employers to the State Unemployment Compensation fund which are promptly deposited with the Federal Treasury at Washington, D. C.

Latest reports from Washington show that the additional $3,404 in interest accrued to the fund for the second quarter of 1938," Secretary Bashore declared, "This makes a total of $1,751,927 in interest to date, an appreciable addition to the fund which is earmarked for the sole purpose of making benefit payments to eligible Pennsylvania workers who become unemployed through no fault of their own."

KIWANIANS' PICNIC TODAY
Members of the Kiwanis club and their families this afternoon and to-

A dinner meeting will be held at the Youngstown club, Union Bank building, Youngstown, O., at 8 o'clock tonight for the purpose of organizing a Youngstown chapter of the

K. of C. Group In Rally Here Tonight

Knights of Columbus members from four counties will assemble at the local K. C. home, North Jefferson street, for an inter-county rally tonight. District Deputy C. P. Harvey of Oil City will preside and the local knights, headed by Grand Knight Thomas Cunningham, will be hosts.

County Fairs

Now Are Showing

Fair Season Gets Start In Pennsylvania First Of Month

HARRISBURG, Aug. 10.—The 1938 agricultural fair season officially opened in Pennsylvania August 1. The season opened with the Milford County Fair at Lewistown last week and closes with the York County Fair at York the first week of October.

Sixty-four agricultural and county fairs will be held at fair grounds during the 1938 season.

In addition there will be 22 community, street and indoor fairs.

J. Hansell French, state secretary of agriculture, officially recognized the opening of the fair season with this comment:

"It is gratifying to learn that Keystone state agriculture is supporting 90 fairs this year. The additional $50,000 granted by the 1937 legislature for the payment of premiums on farm exhibits should have the desired effect of increasing farm interest in the competitive departments. I shall visit as many fairs as time permits and wish all of them a most successful season."

State Educates Deaf And Blind Youths

HARRISBURG, Aug. 10.—Blind or deaf young men and women in Pennsylvania, who show promise of successful careers in the professions, are afforded an opportunity for a college education by the commonwealth through a biennial appropriation to the Department of Public Instruction, State Superintendent Lester K. Ade said today.

For the coming school year a total of $9,135 has been allocated for this use. Through this fund thirty students, twenty-four of whom are blind and six deaf, will be able to begin or continue their education in the colleges of the commonwealth and neighboring states. Twenty-one of the group have been in colleges from one to four years. The remaining nine will enter college in September of the current school year.

Barbara Step Nearer Divorce

Danish Government Grants
Petition Of Couple For
Marital Separation

DIVORCE ACTION
MAY TAKE YEAR

(International News Service)
COPENHAGEN, Aug. 10.—The former Barbara Hutton, American-born Woolworth heiress, appeared well on the way toward a divorce from Danish Count Haugwitz-Reventlow today after the Danish government granted the petition of the estranged couple for a marital separation.

This was regarded as the first legal step toward dissolution of their marriage in a divorce court—an event expected to take place here in about a year.

Separation Valid
Acting Minister of Justice Buhl ruled the separation of the couple valid under Danish law. The ministry of justice thus formally recognized the legality of the private agreement reached by the couple in London July 29, providing the count shall have a share in the upbringing and education of their two-year-old son, Lance.

Meanwhile, the countess, who went from London to Paris, was expected to continue on to Italy. Later, according to London and Paris rumors, she may return to the United States to attempt to regain her American citizenship which she formally renounced last winter.

Four Inmates Die From Dysentery

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10.—Four inmates of the Home for the Indigent have died as a result of an attack of dysentery that has swept both the Alms House and the House of Correction in the Holmesburg area of the city, it was revealed today.

Three men and a woman died of the disease in the past two days, George Hartmann, chief of the Bureau of Charities and Correction, testified, while 50 persons in both institutions have been taken ill. An epidemic of dysentery resulted in the deaths of 39 inmates in the indigent home in Philadelphia last October.

Enters Third Day Of Lie-Down Strike

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 10.—Joseph Unterreiner, 25, today entered the third day of his lie-down strike in Turtle Creek's council chamber, steadfastly refusing to move or be moved until council agrees to pay the cost of medical treatment for his injuries.

Joseph was permanently injured in June, 1928, when he stepped into an open manhole in the borough's sewerage disposal plant, he claims. Although awarded $17,800 by a lower court, the verdict was reversed by an appellate court on grounds that the youth was trespassing at the time of the accident.

Police said they would remain neutral. The boy's legs were paralyzed in the fall, it was claimed.

Price Of Gasoline Will Be Boosted

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 10.—The price of gasoline in Allegheny county is scheduled to increase to 19 cents a gallon tomorrow, it was reported today by members of the Gasoline Dealers' Association here.

At a meeting held here last night approximately 300 members of the association pledged themselves to hold up the price of gas and to keep it up despite price cutting by non-members.

RETAIL GROCERS
Members of the Lawrence County Retail Grocers and Food Dealers Association held a monthly meeting Tuesday night in their Newmarket avenue headquarters. Later, the group attended the "sales men jobs campaign," in The Castleton.

At the close of last year there were 133 million insurance policies in force in the U. S., with a coverage amounting to more than 110 billion dollars.

POVERTY POINT PICNIC TO BE HELD SATURDAY

basket picnic which will take place Saturday, August 13. This is the 25th anniversary of this picnic.

The following officers are in charge: president, Harry Thompson; vice president, Joseph Clark;

Happenings And Items Of Interest At Big Tin Plate Plants Here.

GRAND OLD MEN OF STEEL AND TIN PLATE

Saturday brought most of New Castle's pensioners out on the streets—this being their privilege to spend a part of the morning shaking hands and conversing with many of the boys of the earlier days. Some incident connected with each and with the past could be called to mind with nearly every handshake.

These men have made steel history and at the same time have helped very materially to make New Castle a city of home owners, as practically all these men are or have been home owners.

There are at the present time nearly five hundred of these on the pension roll here in New Castle— from the steel mill, blast furnaces and tin mills. It was indeed a happy thought of Andrew Carnegie to provide for his employees in the way of pensions and carried down through the years by the U. S. Steel Corporation and Carnegie Pension Fund. The two main provisions of this fund are:

That the recipient employee be sixty-five years of age and have a total of twenty-five years net service, or that he or she have a total of twenty-five years net service and shall have become totally disabled while in the service of the corporation or any of its subsidiaries.

To hear some of these boys recall the early days of steel is almost an education in itself—Chas. Nail Mill, Johnson Sheet Mill, Green Tin Mill, Blast Furnaces and Steel Mill. The good old days when coke, iron ore and limestone and other materials ran the entire gamut of processing, finally being shipped away as tin cans to be filled and take their places in the world's market places.

Some of these grand old boys will even name Lovellville, O., as an important tin plate manufacturing center, as many years ago during the "great drought" many ideas of tin plate manufacture and practice were discussed while reclining on one leg in the slightly damp emporiums of our neighboring city, "across the line."

Our hat is off to these men on the pension roll for the part they have played in the industrial life of New Castle and we are indeed proud of the privilege of knowing them and to be able to shake their hand in friendly greeting.

May their days be long and happy.

CARNegie-ILLINOIS CHORUS

Bill Richards, general director of the chorus, tells us that Venner Bright, president of the chorus, today announced the first picnic of the chorus will be held at Rambler's Rest on Slippery Rock road, Saturday, August 20. This picnic is for members, intending members, their families and some invited guests. Bill asks that the members of the chorus pack up a basket, bring along a healthy appetite and have a good time. Transportation will be provided if you report to Miss Cecelia Hasulak or Clyde Mayberry. Members with cars are asked to meet at the Garfield school on Reynolds St. at 1:30 p. m.

SHENANGOGRAMS

A photographer was taking a picture of a father and his college boy son. The photographer suggested that the boy stand with his hand on his father's shoulder.

"It would seem more natural," said the long-suffering parent, "if he stood with his hand in my pocket."

The men who make history seldom have time to write it.

Little Willie: "Mom, you said the baby has your eyes and Daddy's nose, didn't you?"

Mother: "Yes, dear."

Little Willie: "Well, he's got grandpa's teeth now."

HERE AND THERE IN SHENANGO

Evidently the law for prevention of cruelty to animals does not apply to automobiles. In the old horse and buggy days, the horse was given proper consideration. We know a foreman who left his auto in the mill yard without turning off the ignition. The faithful beast was still gently purring when he returned to it at the end of the day to drive him home. No comment.

Clark Buell, general chairman in charge of arrangements for a slate convention of a well known fraternal order to be held in this city during the latter part of the month, is kept quite busy these days. It goes without saying that Clark will have everything in "apple-pie" order for the convention.

Softball Tourney Will Start Friday

Crisci Announces

Ten Teams In Tourney To Determine County Championship, Best Of Three Series

Commissioner Crisci Assisted By Joe Goetz And Joe Donnelly Sets Up Details

Lawrence county's place in the softball sun has arrived. In other words the big City-County softball tourney for ten of the fastest teams in the district will start Friday night. It was announced today by Commissioner Franklin R. Crisci, following a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening at which time Joseph Goetz and Joseph Donnelly of Pittsburgh came here and talked to the managers and outlined the tourney.

The managers of the ten teams entered were enthusiastic for the tourney last night at the meeting. They all expressed themselves as well satisfied with the setup as explained by the three commissioners. Frank Stansbury was kept at home last night by illness in the family. Mr. Goetz acted for the Western Pennsylvania commissioner.

Schedule Being Drawn
A schedule of games is being drawn up in Pittsburgh today and will be sent here as soon as completed. The schedule will be printed in The News so that the teams will know where and who they play.

Dom Costello was at the meeting last night and said that his umpires are ready to handle the games. He named the following umpires that will work the games, two being from Ellwood City, Fred Sanders and Nick Court. The New Castle umpires will be—Dom Costello, James Mash, Gacy Gennock, Tip Richards, Red Keller, Tony Frisco, Charles Scaglione, Frank Rossi, Frank Isabella, Tommy Conti, Shorty Zidow, Pete Zingaro and Clem General. The umpires will have complete authority in all ball games. No player can participate on more than one team. When a player signs with one team he must stay with that team for the duration of the tourney. Norm Bishara cannot play in the City-County tourney because he has played with the Kozza Club of Pittsburgh in a tourney game already.

The tourney must be over by Aug. 27, said Mr. Crisci. The Western Pennsylvania winner will get a trip to Chicago and will not have to beat the Eastern winner, Mr. Goetz stated.

League Games Postponed

President Franklin Crisci of the city softball league announced last night that the city league games will be postponed for one week until the tourney games can be gotten under way.

The following fields were inspected by Commissioners Crisci, Goetz and Donnelly yesterday and will serve as tournament fields: Radiator field, Gaston park, E. & A. Rose avenue, Rotary field and Centennial field. The fields will all be put in shape for the tourney games.

Double-Headers Sunday

There will more than likely be double-headers played Sunday in an effort to get the tourney as far along as possible in one week. The team taking two out of three games wins that particular flight and will meet another opponent in a three-game series. There promises to be a lot of interesting softball games played here in the next few weeks.

It was announced by Mr. Goetz the semi-finals and finals here will be played under the personal supervision of Commissioner Franklin R. Crisci who will have full charge of the games.

Umpires Assigned To Games Tonight

Dom Costello today assigned the following umpires to work the postponed city baseball league games being played tonight:
Indies at Ryantown, Sammy Bulano and Tex Richards.
Union Civics vs Slovak club, Cedar street, Zidow and Frisco.

Start Qualifying At Castle Hills

Izzy Solomon With 72 Leads To Date In Course Championship Qualifying

Castle Hills golf course is a beehive of excitement these days over the qualifying rounds for the club championship that has already gotten under way. The medalist honors so far are held by Izzy Solomon with a sparkling 72.

The course championship is an open affair, and it is expected that all of the big name golfers in New Castle will enter.

Pagley 1937 Champ
The qualifying deadline is August 15th. The entry fee is fifty cents and Max Ludwig owner of Castle Hills is putting up an additional fifty cents to make the prizes bigger.

There will no doubt be a 100 or more in the qualifying rounds. The low 16 will make up the first flight, and the next 16 the second flight and so on.

Jimmy Pagley is the defending champion from last year but owing to illness has not been able to play much lately. He will not be required to qualify for the first flight. Pagley defeated Emil Grommes for the title last season.

Solomon Shoots 72
Mr. Ludwig is giving a beautiful trophy cup and a season membership card for 1939 to the winner of the tourney. Other prizes will also be awarded.

Following are the qualifiers to date, Izzy Solomon 72, Bibby Mackey 75, Frank Plutek 74, Jim Dudek 74, George Shook 80, Dick Barker 87, Joe Fisher 83, J. C. Bingham 84, Abe Solomon 88, Forest Raub 84.

Junior Softball Games Thursday

The following games will be played in the Junior softball league on Thursday night of this week, according to an announcement by Franklin R. Crisci, president of the league.
Syrilan Rays vs Fannins, Rose Ave.
DeCaprios vs Peoples, Dean Park.
Oak A. C. vs Cottage Grove, New Wilmington.

City Softball Games Tonight

League To Play Tonight, Friday's Games Cancelled Due To Tournament

There will be six games tonight in the city softball league. The games, weather permitting, will start at 8 o'clock. The Spencers will be idle tonight, taking a forfeit from the Royal A. C. team.

Franklin Crisci, president of the league, has postponed the Friday games in the league owing to the start of the city-county tourney.

The schedule for tonight will take the Len's to the league leading Reds field for a game with the Reds. The P. O. E. team will play the Boro A. C. at Boro field. The Hawaiians will battle the Reiters at Centennial field. The Mohawks will go to the Seventh Ward to meet the Wash Bears.

The K. Pulaski team will go to Gaston park to oppose the Nobles team. The N. Y. A. will entertain the Tigers club at Lockley field.

Hillsville Has Chance For Flag

Should Wampum Lose, Hillsville Win, Race Will Be Deadlocked

LAWRENCE COUNTY PLAY ENDS FRIDAY

Wampum will play at Bessemer and South Hill at Hillsville today in Lawrence County Baseball league games. Both contests will start at 8:45 p. m. The season will end following games Friday when Bessemer plays at South Hill and Hillsville at Wampum. The race for the second half flag is between Wampum and Hillsville.

The standing of the league today follows:
W. L. Pct.
Wampum 8 2 .800
Hillsville 7 3 .700
Bessemer 5 5 .500
South Hill 0 10 .000

Should Wampum lose and Hillsville win today both will be tied with a percentage of .727 and the "battle of the season" will come on Friday when Hillsville plays Wampum at Wampum. The winner of that game would capture the second half flag and play Bessemer, first half winner, in the series for the league championship.

O'Brien Makes Good With Fans

Baby-Faced Youngster From McKees Rocks Wins Fan-dom's Grace

Regis O'Brien, a chubby-faced, black haired Irish lad from McKees Rocks proved the "Corrigan" in the Grove street bowl Monday night and like Corrigan he wasn't afraid to take a chance when he battled Nick Retardo, the Ellwood City slugger. He got the watch because he was the winner of the secret judges vote for the best fight.

It was the first time in some time that an Irish lad came through so sensationally here. For some time there has been a lack of Irish fighters in this city.
Regis side-stepped, ducked, and punched every time he got a break. He tried to stand up and slug in the third round and Retardo proved too strong. However, Nick was wild and this counted against him.

There is no question but that O'Brien will find the fans awaiting to cheer him should he be matched for another bout in the future.

Preparing For Next Week's Show

Matchmaker Tom Leach Will Watch Farrell Fights Tonight

Tommy Leach, matchmaker, will go to Farrell tonight to see the amateur bouts there and he will pick anybody he believes capable of putting up the kind of fights New Castle fans like.

He is getting ready for next Monday night's eight-bout program and on the card will be some more sensational "biffers." All the fights here have been very good and next week's bouts should prove no different.
Owing to the Monday night's knockout, six knockdowns and close battles it is probable that the reserved section will be disposed of before the end of the week.

PROGRESSIVE GIRLS WIN
Progressive Youth Girls team annexed two more victories, defeating Ellwood City, 6-4, and later toppling the Shadyside lassies by an 18-13 count. J. Dado and Mary Semansky starred in the first battle. Rose Mooney smashed out a pair of homers in the Shadyside game. Tonight the Progressive Girls play the Chewton, All-Stars.

Armstrong To Battle Ambers This Evening

Lightweight Champion Will Risk Title In Fight With Henry Armstrong

ARMSTRONG AFTER THREE BIG TITLES

By LAWTON CARVER
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The controversial and sometimes entertaining reign of lightweight champion Lou Ambers will be ended tonight and out of the ring when it is all over will walk the first man ever to wear three boxing crowns at the same time. But despite all that and the added fact that Henry Armstrong, the challenger, is one of the busiest, most, savage and most capable fighters pugilism has seen in years, the outdoor spectacle is going to be something less than a stupendous success at the box office.

May Be Flop

In fewer words, the bout is going to approach very close to the border line of a flop, with 20,000 or less customers scattered through the spacious Polo Grounds and with $100,000 or less in promoter Mike Jacobs' till when he gets around to counting up the cash. At one time they talked about a $200,000 gate and until only the last few days they still were mentioning $150,000.

Instead, the show won't begin to compare with some of the big time gates attracted by little men, but, nevertheless, nobody will lose anything, for it is strictly a percentage proposition, with Ambers to get the champion's customary 37½ per cent and Armstrong 22½ per cent of whatever they finally lure into the Giants' ball yard.

The betting odds are fluctuating between 3½ to 1 and 5 to 1 on Armstrong to add the lightweight title to the welter and feather championships which he already holds, with betting reportedly at a virtual standstill.

Mahoning Steps Nearer Pennant

Defeat West Side Tigers 4 To 1, As Frigione Pitches One-Hitter

Mahoning A. A. ball club with Frigione hurling a great one-hit game defeated the West Side Tigers last night at Lee Avenue field, 4 to 1, and went a step nearer the pennant in the second-half of the City Baseball league.

Morris was touched for seven hits with Mash having a pair of doubles to lead the Mahoning attack, he also had a single. Frigione fanned ten men as he made a spirited bid for the hall of fame with a no-hitter, but his hopes were spoiled by young Rote who had a single.

The Slovaks being idle last night the Mahonings go back into first place in the league standing. The season ends on Thursday.

Asks Protection For Fur Bearers

Harry Laurence, supervisor of the Pennsylvania Trappers association today requested the co-operation of allcoon hunters and members of various sportsmen's associations in protecting fur bearing animals during the dog training season which opens August 20.
The game commission does not propagate or stock fur bearers according to Laurence. "Therefore," he states "we must depend upon natural resources for our future supply of fur."

Dime Would Pick Raffa As "Tops"

Veteran Tells Friends Mike Best Looking Prospect To Him

Jimmie Dime, veteran developer of fighting men, likes Mike Raffa who defeated Sammy Barabato, 118 pound champion amateur of Youngstown. In fact, when a fan in the Grove St. playground Monday night asked Dime: "Who do you believe the best looking prospect?" Dime replied "Raffa."

In the first round the Youngstown champion for three years straight, appeared as though he would beat Raffa but things changed in the second when the East Liverpool forced the fighting and tossed some nice left hooks to Sammy's wind.

They fought viciously in the third with one hand free and Mike succeeded in delivering a hard right over the heart. He struck Sammy as Referee McMahon broke them near the ropes and the fans liked the decision that was given the boy Dime likes.

However, it should be recorded that Mike had a several pounds weight handicap on the Youngstown scrapper.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Henry Armstrong, the fast punching colored lad who owns the featherweight and welterweight championships will go after the lightweight championship when he battles Lou Ambers tonight in New York. Armstrong is a 3 to 1 favorite and despite Ambers jumping-jack and weaving style, Armstrong should win. If he does he will have collected the three titles during a period of nine months. The fight is expected to draw $100,000. Eddie Mead, who brought Floyd Hybert, Jimmy Hackley and other fighters to the Jolly bowl, is the manager of Armstrong.

The career of Armstrong brings Mead to fathom's mind. In his earlier days he managed Joe Lynch, bantamweight champion. Later Mead went to Cleveland and managed different fighters. When he left Cleveland he did not have any too much of the world's goods. Later he got hold of Armstrong and now is in the "feathers" again which is pleasant news to theistic fraternity.

County Tennis Tourney Will Be Undertaken

Any Player In Lawrence County Eligible, Tourney To Start August 15

It was decided by representatives of all tennis courts in New Castle to sponsor a gigantic Lawrence county tennis tourney this year, making it open to all residents of the county.

Entries will be accepted until Saturday at 9 p. m. The entries can be made to either Allan Morrow at 830 Butler avenue or to Eddie Connerly at the Sporting Goods store. Entries will be taken for both singles and doubles. There will be a small entry fee to take care of trophies for the winners.

The members of the tourney committee would like to hear from several of the strong Ellwood City tennis clubs and have some of their star performers enter the tourney. Mr. Morrow will be the general chairman of the committee and tourney.

Pirates Win On Two-Hit Hurling By Russ Bauers

Hold To Six And One-Half Game Lead Over Giants, Cubs Defeat Reds

INDIANS WIN AND THEN LOSE

By PAT ROBINSON
International Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—There is no tonic in the world so good for increasing the appetite of a ball player as a whiff of that world series nourishment.

For years and years the Pirates have been yearning to get their feet under the banquet table but the best they've had were a few crumbs left after the Giants, Cards or Cubs had taken most of the juicy pickings.

Now the Pirates scent that world series banquet from afar and it is doubtful if any other outfit will beat them to the table. They are all bent on getting those nice juicy world series steaks and every man is bearing down in the race to get them.

Bauers In Form.
The hitters have been coming to life and the pitchers are following suit. The latest to show some pitching of a classic order is Russ Bauers, who let the Cards down with two hits yesterday for a 1-0 shutout. Moreover, he carried over the lone run of the game.

The Pirates thus held their 6½-game lead over the jittery Giants, who barely managed to nose out the Bees, 5-4. The Giants kicked in with four errors and didn't look the part of pennant contenders even in victory.

Larry French had a six-hit shut-out up his sleeve and the Cubs moved into third place with a 3-0 decision over Derringer and the Reds. Rip Collins' homer would have been enough for French, but the left-hander, like Bauers, aided his own cause with a rousing triple.

The Phils and Dodgers staged one of their usual slugfests with a parade of pitchers and a bombardment of the fences and the Dodgers finished on top, 9-6, and moved up to fifth place over the Bees.

Senators Top Yanks.
The Yanks ran into a snag when Ken Chase, young left-hander of the Senators, set them back, 4-2, but it didn't hurt them much, because an even split was the best the Indians could get with the lowly Browns.

This Chase is one of the wildest lefties ever seen in or out of captivity. He issued nine passes but gave only six hits and drove in the winning run in the ninth with a hit off Spud Chandler. He would have had a shutout but for the fact that he let the Yanks have one run without a hit when he gave three passes in a row and he sent the second run over the plate on a wild pitch.

Nelson Potter of the Athletics had a no-hit shutout in hand for six innings but then blew higher than a kite and the Red Sox pounded out 16 runs in the last three frames to win, 16-4. Old man Harris went the route for the Red Sox.

Tigers Win Game.
Rudy York's 23rd homer in the ninth gave Tommy Bridges and the Tigers a decision over Jack Knott and the White Sox. Knott should sue his buddies. They not only got him no runs to speak of but made five errors behind him and although he gave only four hits he was beaten, 4-1.

Young Bob Feller blew up again in the first game of the double-header at St. Louis and the Browns came from behind to beat the Indians, 4-3. Earl Whitehill, who is old enough to be Feller's father, gave the Indians an even break by taking the nightcap, 8 to 1.

Red Sox Trim K. Pulaskis 4-2

The New Castle Red Sox uncovered another pitching sensation last night in the person of "Red" Wilson, who turned in a swell job of hand-cutting the K. Pulaski team with one hit last night at Wash high field as the Sox came through with a 4 to 2 victory.

"Cabbie" Mrozek and Brownie Ostrosky did the game for the Pulaskys and only gave up five hits. "Father" Coughlin and Adams had the only extra-base hits in the game and both helped the Sox to win.

Wilson fanned four and walked five men. Mrozek fanned three and walked three. Ostrosky fanned two and walked one.

Mrs. Nolan To Meet Champion

Faces Severe Test Today In Battle With Defending Champion Betty Abernathy

VICTORY MAY BRING TITLE

Mrs. T. E. "Freda" Nolan, the peer of New Castle's lady golfers, meets a severe test today when she will match her skill with Miss Betty Abernathy, Pennsylvania state and western Pennsylvania titleholder, in the match which will most likely decide the title, although it is only a second round match.

Miss Abernathy, representing the Oakmont club, was extended yesterday in defeating Mrs. Lee Mason of Stanton Heights in the title tournament being staged at the Fox Chapel course, winning by a 1 up score.

Mrs. Nolan, who was runner-up for medal honors in the qualifying round, defeated Mrs. J. Stuart Brown of the Allegheny Country club 2 and 1.

Miss Clara Hartsuff, who is also carrying the colors of the New Castle Country club in the tourney, defeated Mrs. I. Weberman of the Westmoreland Country club in 19 holes, 1 up, playing in the third division.

Ryantown Wins Over St. Joes

"Schoolboy" Lintz Holds St. Josephs To Five Hits, Score 5-3

The Ryantown team with Michael "Schoolboy" Lintz in rare form, topped the St. Josephs team last night at Rotary field in a city league game 5 to 3. Lintz relieved Carey in the first inning and continued the Ryantown wizardry over the hapless St. Joes.

The St. Josephs team got to Carey for three runs in the inning, but after that could not touch Lintz with a five-foot pole.

Ryantown had one big inning, the fifth, when they secured four of their runs. The heavy hitters were Gibson, Travers, Kerr, Lintz and Herno.

The Ryantown team will play the Indians tonight and the Mahoning A. A. on Thursday night at Ryantown field.

The Castle Hills caddies golfing team defeated the Sylvan Heights team 11½ to 3½ at the Castle Hills course recently, giving them a real lesson in golf club swinging. CISCO WIDENS LEAD
Led by Platek, Kennedy, and Palus, the first of the trio with a sub-par round of 35, Carnegie-Illinois Steel golfers widened the lead between first and second place last evening, when they made a clean sweep against New Castle News, 6-0, at Sylvan Heights course and now have a commanding lead in the New Castle Golf League which will require super-human efforts to overcome.

In spite of the fact that the course was still a little damp from the cloudburst of Sunday evening, preventing any lengthy roll to the ball, a number of fine scores were shot. Emil Grommes having a sub-par round of 35 to match that of Platek, while Jimmy Bagley, M. K. Gilliland, and Tobe Penati had par rounds of 36. Hackett, Kennedy had a 37, and Willie Grommes, Walt Vogan, and Louis Malls had 38's. Ernie Palus, Chuck Dutkin, Ace Perrotta, Pete Dimco, and Joe Mazzari had 39's.

With the exception of the Carnegie-Illinois match, all the other games were fairly even. Union Brewing and Hardware Men's split even 3-3; Cities Service defeated Pennsylvania R. R. 4-2; Melvins and Crisels halved their match 3-3; while Reynolds, Summers, and McCann defeated Colquhoun 3½ to 2½.

The standing of the teams at the end of the fourth week of play in the second half, is as follows:

FROM ME TO YOU
By MESEALL

Here's news that is news... some of you have no doubt been wondering if Farmer Al and his pal were going to reap any fruit from their labors... put your doubts away... beans, the long yellow kind have been picked and enough to feed both families for several days... and of course they picked corn before it was ready to eat... but they should have corn within a few days now... that Blue Mexican kind... we hope.

This bit of news might seem a little late... but we always say, better late than never... when a dog bites a man that's not news... and when a man bites a dog that's also getting over the newsy stage... but when a dog pulls the trousers of a man, that's news... It seems that each Sunday morning the residents of Boyles avenue get up before church time and take a walk... a walk to the corner of Boyles and Highland where they purchase a morning paper... a certain gentleman in the habit of taking his prize wire haired fox terrier on this trip. Last Sunday morning the gentleman had the dog on a leash and the leash tied to a belt loop on his trousers... the dog saw something interesting and away he started... bringing G. Z's trousers to his ankles... where was the candid camera fan?

This past spring, if you remember, the Mayor of New Castle issued a statement that quarantined all dogs for a period of 90 days... that quarantine is still good... it seems that a few folks have been complaining about their neighbors dogs running at large and without a tag... not only should you not break the city law but you should not break the law "do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

"Sales Means Jobs" salesmanship crusade was started in the Castleton hotel last night with seventy-one towns people in attendance... the idea was started by the Junior Chamber of Commerce under the direction of President T. P. Jones and Secretary L. J. Lewis, but the work will be carried on from here under the direction of L. B. Round (Louie to you) and to make it a huge success everyone should do their best and cooperate... let's make this idea go over... the real campaign is supposed to start Thursday, August 18th... let's talk folks.

STOCKS

Market Today
Is Reactionary

Some Support Develops In Market, But Rallying Tendencies Are Limited

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The stock market developed a reactionary tone today. Leaders at their lows were down from 1 to more than 2 points. Some support developed but rallying tendencies were limited.

Both U. S. Steel and Bethlehem dropped over a point each. Crucible was a firm exception. Chrysler started easy and then fell more than 2 points before meeting support. General Motors was off over a point but came back somewhat later.

There were a number of issues that bucked the trend. U. S. Rubber preferred followed yesterday's late tussle by going to a new high for the year. Other rubber shares were heavy, however. Union Pacific also exceeded the year's best price in a generally lower market for railroad shares.

Higher-priced issues gave ground easily. DuPont dropped over 2 points, and Case Threshing 3. International Harvester dropped 2, and Westinghouse over a point.

Celanese and Industrial Rayon went to new highs but receded later. Gold shares were higher, and some of the oil scored small gains. Elsewhere the trend was down.
